7th November 2018

Dear Parent/Carer

To mark the launch of Anti-Bullying week on Monday 12th November we would like the children to wear odd socks (these can be worn over tights). The theme this year is 'Choose Respect over Bullying' and we feel this event will be a great opportunity for the children to express themselves, whilst respecting individuality and uniqueness.

Over the week the children will be taking part in a variety of activities and discussions, raising awareness and helping the children to understand:

- The definition of respect
- That bullying is a behaviour choice
- That we can respectfully disagree with each other i.e. we don't have to be best friends or always agree with each other but we do have to respect each other
- That we all need to choose to respect each other both face to face and online

We hope this will be an informative week and we look forward to seeing all the children in their odd socks on Monday.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Downer
